POLICY STATEMENT

District Code

The faculty and Principal shall implement the local school district Code of Conduct/Appropriate Behavior Handbook. The county revises this yearly and copies are distributed to teachers and each child's family at the first of school or as enrolled. Parents must sign that they have read this booklet and will abide by the rules.

Bush Elementary

The Behavior Management System was developed by a committee and approved by the council. This is a classroom management system that is designed to be a basic school wide system that allows teachers to adapt and specialize it to their own unique style and classroom. Parents sign a form and return it stating that they have read and discussed the behavior management system with their child; they understand the rules, consequences and rewards, as well as parent and student expectations.
